

CURRENT FALLON RANGE TRAINING COMPLEX

The Fallon Range Training Complex currently includes approximately 232,000 acres of Navy-managed land and 12,256 square nautical miles of airspace overlying 10.4 million acres of land.

FALLON RANGE TRAINING COMPLEX

- ▶ Trains 100 percent of deploying naval aviation, special warfare, and strike warfare units
- ▶ Home of the Naval Aviation Warfighting Development Center (NAWDC), the Navy's advanced schoolhouse for training aviators
- ▶ Replicating training elsewhere would be very difficult and expensive
- ▶ Provides critical contributions to the Department of Defense
